Villanelle
• Rhyme: ABA-ABA-ABA-ABA-ABA
• Structure: 19 lines—5 tercets and a closing quatrain. 6-11 syllables per line
• Measure/Beat: iambic trimeter, tetrameter or pentameter
• Common Themes: Love, loss and challenge
• Other notes (because nothing is absolute in poetry)
  • 19 lines combine repeating refrains, rhyme and cross-rhyme* schemes
  • first and third lines of poem later form the closing couplet.
  • Final line of the first tercet rhymes with the fifth line of the next stanza forming a repetitive rhyme between the first and third lines of every stanza.
*cross rhyme entails rhymes that answer one another across intervening lines (abab)

Villanelle
• Rhyme: ABA-ABA-ABA-ABA-ABA
• Structure: 19 lines—5 tercets and a closing quatrain. 6-11 syllables per line
• Measure/Beat: iambic trimeter, tetrameter or pentameter
• Common Themes: Love, loss and challenge
• Other notes (because nothing is absolute in poetry)
  • 19 lines combine repeating refrains, rhyme and cross-rhyme* schemes
  • first and third lines of poem later form the closing couplet.
  • Final line of the first tercet rhymes with the first line of the next stanza forming a repetitive rhyme between the first and third lines of every stanza.
*cross rhyme entails rhymes that answer one another across intervening lines (abab)